

100 Unforgettable Dresses: The History and Glamour of Women's Fashion

100 Unforgettable Dresses is a stunning visual journey through the history of women's fashion, featuring 100 iconic dresses that have shaped the way we dress today. From the simple elegance of Audrey Hepburn's little black dress to the extravagant glamour of Marilyn Monroe's white halter gown, this book showcases the most unforgettable dresses ever worn by the world's most famous women.

Author Hal Rubenstein, a renowned fashion historian, has spent years researching and selecting the dresses featured in this book. Each dress is accompanied by a detailed description, historical context, and stunning photography. Rubenstein also provides insights into the designers who created these iconic garments and the celebrities who wore them.
