

Glimmer of Hope: How Tragedy Sparked a Movement

On December 14, 2012, the world was shocked by the horrific shooting at Sandy Hook Elementary School in Newtown, Connecticut. Twenty children and six adults were killed that day, leaving behind a community shattered by grief.

In the wake of this tragedy, a group of parents who lost their children in the shooting came together to create a movement for change. They called their organization Sandy Hook Promise, and their mission is to prevent gun violence and protect children from harm.
