But Marissen is determined to succeed. He's spent years searching for the perfect trio members. He's even traveled to Europe to study with the world's leading recFree Download players.

But despite all his efforts, Marissen has yet to achieve his goal. The closest he came was in the early 1990s, when he formed a trio with two of the most talented recFree Download players in the world: Marion Verbruggen and Walter van Hauwe.

The trio was an instant success. They toured the world and released several acclaimed recordings. But despite their success, the trio eventually disbanded.

What went wrong? Marissen is reluctant to talk about it. But it's clear that there were some personality conflicts within the group.

Marissen was devastated by the trio's breakup. He felt like he had failed in his quest to create the world's greatest recFree Download trio.

But Marissen didn't give up. He continued to search for the perfect trio members. And in 2000, he finally found them: Janet See, Peter van Heyghen, and Marcel Ponseele.

The new trio was even more successful than the first. They toured the world and released even more acclaimed recordings. And this time, the trio stayed together for over a decade.

In 2012, the trio finally disbanded. But this time, it was on amicable terms. All three members were ready to move on to other projects.

Marissen is proud of what he and his trio accomplished. He believes that they created some of the most beautiful and memorable music of the 20th century.

But Marissen also knows that his quest to create the world's greatest recFree Download trio nearly cost him everything. He lost friends, he sacrificed his personal life, and he even risked his health.

But in the end, Marissen believes it was all worth it. He created something truly special, something that will be enjoyed by music lovers for generations to come.
