

Jesus Rose On Easter Morn (Listen Look)

In the annals of human history, the resurrection of Jesus Christ stands as an event that has profoundly shaped the course of civilization. For centuries, scholars, theologians, and countless individuals have sought to unravel the mystery surrounding this momentous occurrence. In his groundbreaking book, Jesus Rose on Easter Morn: Listen, Look, Dr. Michael J. Licona presents a comprehensive and compelling case for the veracity of the resurrection, offering irrefutable evidence that will leave readers questioning their own beliefs and forever altered by its implications.

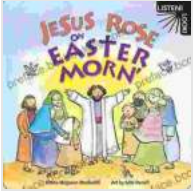

The cornerstone of Dr. Licona's argument lies in the firsthand testimonies of those who witnessed the resurrection. He meticulously examines the accounts of the apostles, the women who visited the tomb, and even skeptical individuals who initially refused to believe. Through an in-depth analysis of these eyewitness narratives, Dr. Licona demonstrates their reliability, consistency, and overwhelming support for the fact that Jesus rose from the dead.

Beyond the written accounts, Dr. Licona delves into the realm of archaeology, uncovering tangible evidence that corroborates the biblical story. From the empty tomb to the Shroud of Turin, he presents a rich tapestry of physical findings that point to the historical reality of the resurrection. By combining the insights of archaeology with the eyewitness testimony, Dr. Licona builds an unassailable case that defies denial.
