One Easter morning, Esmeralda sets out on a journey to find the Easter Bunny. She meets many animals along the way, and she helps them all with their wishes. She helps a lost lamb find its way home, she helps a sick bird get well, and she even helps a grumpy old bear find happiness.

Finally, Esmeralda finds the Easter Bunny, and she asks him to make one wish for her. She wishes that all the children in the world would be happy and loved. The Easter Bunny grants her wish, and Esmeralda returns home, knowing that she has made a difference in the world.

About the Author

Esmeralda the Rainbow is a fictional character created by author and illustrator, J.P. Miller. Miller is a lifelong lover of animals, and she has always been fascinated by the power of storytelling. She wrote Rabbit

Moon as a way to share her love of animals and her belief in the power of hope and love.

Miller is also the author of several other children's books, including The Little Red Hen, The Three Little Pigs, and Jack and the Beanstalk. Her books have been translated into many languages and have sold millions of copies worldwide.
