In the breathtakingly beautiful and rugged landscape of the Isle of Skye, three women find themselves at a crossroads in their lives.

Rowan, a young woman from a humble background, has always dreamed of escaping the island and making a life for herself in the wider world. But when she falls in love with a local fisherman, she finds herself torn between her desire for adventure and her newfound love.

Catriona, a successful businesswoman, has returned to Skye after years away to care for her ailing father. But as she reconnects with her roots, she begins to question the choices she has made in life and whether she has truly found happiness.

Morag, a wise and enigmatic old woman, has lived on Skye her entire life. She has witnessed the island's many changes and has a deep understanding of the human heart. As Rowan and Catriona struggle with their choices, Morag offers them guidance and support.

As the seasons change and the tides ebb and flow, the lives of these three women become intertwined in a powerful and moving story of love, loss, and the resilience of the human spirit.
