Here are some of the stories included in the bestselling backlist of Stories from Rwanda:

- "The House at the End of the Road" by Scholastique Mukasonga: This novel tells the story of a young woman who returns to Rwanda after the genocide to find that her family's home has been taken over by the killers of her parents. She must confront her past and find a way to move on with her life.
- "The Girl Who Smiled Beads" by Clemantine Wamariya: This memoir tells the story of a young girl who was orphaned during the genocide and who was forced to flee Rwanda. She eventually found refuge in the United States, where she has become a successful author and speaker.
- "We Are All Rwandans" by Immaculée Ilibagiza: This book tells the story of a young woman who survived the genocide by hiding in a bathroom for 91 days. She shares her story of hope and forgiveness and has become a leading advocate for peace and reconciliation in Rwanda.
- "Left to Tell: Discovering God Amidst the Rwandan Holocaust" by Immaculée Ilibagiza: This book is a sequel to "We Are All Rwandans" and tells the story of Immaculée's journey to find God after the genocide. She shares her story of faith and hope and how she has found healing and peace in her life.
- "The Rwanda Genocide: A Bystander's Account" by Jean-Pierre Karegeya: This book is a firsthand account of the Rwandan genocide by a man who was working as a journalist in Rwanda at the time. He shares his story of the horrors that he witnessed and the challenges of reporting on the genocide.

These are just a few of the many stories that are included in the bestselling backlist of Stories from Rwanda. These stories are essential reading for anyone who wants to understand the history of Rwanda and the challenges that the country faces today.
