The story begins with Sir Tristan and Lady Isolde preparing their home for the big day. They are joined by their friends and family, including Sir Lancelot, Queen Guinevere, and Merlin the Magician.

As the guests arrive, the festivities begin. There is a grand feast, complete with all the traditional Thanksgiving dishes. There is also music, dancing, and games.

But the most important part of the day is the time spent with loved ones. The residents of New Camelot share stories, laughter, and memories. They give thanks for their many blessings, and they look forward to the year to come.

The New Camelot Thanksgiving Novella is a heartwarming story about the importance of family, friends, and gratitude. It is a perfect read for the holiday season.
