Jack Ryan Jr. is a rising star in the CIA, following in the footsteps of his legendary father. But when a mission goes awry, he finds himself on the run from both his own government and a ruthless terrorist organization.

With the help of a team of loyal operatives, Jack must race against time to stop a global conspiracy that could plunge the world into chaos. From the corridors of power in Washington, D.C., to the treacherous mountains of Afghanistan, Jack's pursuit of justice will test his limits and push him to the brink.

In Duty and Honor, Tom Clancy delivers a gripping and authentic thriller that will keep you on the edge of your seat from start to finish. Jack Ryan Jr. is a worthy successor to his father, and this latest installment in the series is a must-read for fans of Clancy and military thrillers in general.
