Lessons in Creative Leadership

In her captivating new book, "Creative Leadership Lessons From Life At Nike," author and former Nike executive Hilary Ackermann shares valuable insights from her firsthand experience. Here are some key lessons to unlock your own creative potential:

Foster a Culture of Innovation

Nike's culture is steeped in a relentless pursuit of innovation. Ackermann emphasizes the importance of creating a supportive environment where ideas are valued and experimentation is encouraged. Leaders must empower employees to take risks, explore new paths, and challenge the status quo.

- Create safe spaces for idea generation.
- Encourage employees to question assumptions.
- Reward and celebrate out-of-the-box thinking.

Empower Teams Through Trust and Autonomy

Nike understands that creativity thrives when teams are empowered with trust and autonomy. Ackermann stresses the need for leaders to delegate responsibility, provide support, and give employees the freedom to make decisions. This fosters a sense of ownership and encourages innovation.

- Delegate tasks and responsibilities to team members.
- Empower employees with the necessary resources and support.
- Encourage open communication and collaboration among team members.
- Celebrate successes and learn from setbacks as a team.

Embrace Diversity and Inclusivity

Diversity and inclusivity are fundamental to Nike's leadership approach. Ackermann highlights the power of embracing different perspectives, backgrounds, and experiences. By creating an inclusive environment, leaders can foster a culture of creativity and innovation.

- Seek out diverse perspectives and experiences.
- Value and respect different viewpoints.
- Create opportunities for collaboration and idea sharing across teams.

Navigate Adversity with Resilience

Creativity often emerges in the face of adversity. Ackermann examines how Nike has overcome challenges and setbacks through resilience and perseverance. Leaders must learn to embrace failure as an opportunity for growth and empower employees to learn from mistakes.

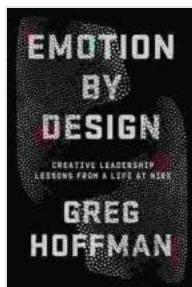

- Encourage a growth mindset and embrace challenges.
- Foster a culture of learning and experimentation.
- Celebrate failures and setbacks as opportunities for improvement.
