In this heartwarming and hilarious memoir, author Jane Doe recounts her life with her husband, John, and their menagerie of animals. From their early days as a couple with just a few pets to their present-day life on a small farm with dozens of animals, Jane shares her experiences with love, laughter, and misadventure in the animal kingdom.

Jane's writing is honest and engaging, and her love for her animals is evident on every page. She writes about the joy of bringing home a new puppy, the heartbreak of losing a beloved pet, and the everyday challenges of living with a houseful of animals. But through it all, Jane's love for her husband and her animals shines through.

With My Husband and Other Animals is a must-read for anyone who loves animals, memoirs, or simply a good laugh. Jane's story is sure to warm your heart and make you smile.
